

Study with story

God's story transforms your story

A FRESH WAY TO STUDY SCRIPTURE

start with prayer

GOD'S Simply read

repetitive reading

Read the passage multiple times to increase comprehension.

audio bible

Read the passage out loud or listen to it on an audio Bible.

multiple translations

Read the passage in several different translations.

Thoroughly mark

key words

Using coloured pens, mark the key repeated words in the passage.

word studies

Look up significant words in the original Hebrew or Greek and note what you learn (blueletterbible.com).

key lists

Look at every occurrence of key words in the passage and make lists of what you learn.

Openly investigate

exhaustive questions

List every question you have, both questions for clarity and questions of curiosity.

cross references

Using a concordance, search for cross references of key verses (biblehub.com).

outline text

Make an outline of the text by giving titles to the chapter and paragraphs and listing subpoints.

Repeatedly write

handwrite text

Copy the text word for word in your own handwriting.

paraphrase passage

Re-write the passage in your own words.

journal prayers

Write out your prayer to God based on the passage.

YOUR STORY

know God

Write a list of everything you learn about God's character and ways and respond in worship.

action steps

Apply the truths that the Holy Spirit has impressed on you in specific and measureable ways.

memorize verse

Choose your favourite verse and commit it to memory.

Study with Story

God's story transforms your story

start with prayer

scripture:

1 Simply read

repetitive reading

Read the passage multiple times to increase comprehension.

audio bible

Read the passage out loud or listen to it on an audio Bible.

multiple translations

Read the passage in several different translations.

2 Thoroughly mark

word studies

Look up a significant word in the original Hebrew or Greek and note what you learn. (blueletterbible.com)

key words (in your bible or printed text)

Using coloured pens, mark the key repeated words in the passage.

key lists

Look at every occurrence of a key word in the passage and make a list of what you learn.

3 Openly investigate

exhaustive questions

List every question you have, both questions for clarity and questions of curiosity.

cross references

Using a concordance, search for cross references of a key verse. (biblehub.com)

outline text

Make an outline of the text by giving the chapters and paragraphs titles, and listing the sub-points.

Study With Story

God's story transforms your story

4 Repeatedly write

handwrite text

Copy a few verses word for word in your own handwriting.

paraphrase passage

Re-write a few verses in your own words.

journal prayers

Write out your prayer to God based on the passage.

5 Your story

know God

Write a list of everything you learn about God's character and ways and respond in worship.

action steps

Apply the truths that the Holy Spirit has impressed on you in specific and measureable ways.

memorize verse

Choose your favourite verse and commit it to memory.

